

Please write a sentence or two on each question:

1. What do you think philosophy is all about? Specifically, what are some questions you think are typically examined by philosophers and philosophical texts? What do you think are the main branches of philosophy?
2. What philosophy courses, if any, have you taken before?
3. What do you think a philosophy course should offer its students?
4. Have you studied Latin, French, or German? Do you feel comfortable reading texts in any of those languages?

-----

Student Name

Please write your name in the box:

--