

1. What is the “truth rule” at the beginning of the Third Meditation?
2. What are the three kinds of thoughts, and which kind can be true/false strictly speaking?
3. What are the three kinds of ideas?
4. What are “formal reality” and “objective reality”?
5. What example (in the Synopsis and the First Replies) illustrates why certain ideas might need a special cause?
6. In the primary argument for God’s existence, why does the idea of God need to come from God as its cause?
7. In the secondary argument for God’s existence, what role is God supposed to be play with respect to my existence?
8. What kind of idea is the idea of God?

Extra Copy #1

Please write your name in the box:

--